Leaves on Ground I

Picture Description¹⁾

Fallen leaves scattered on a dark asphalt surface.

Analysis¹⁾

This photograph captures a high-angle view of fallen autumn leaves scattered across a dark asphalt surface. The leaves, in varying shades of gold, tan, and white, are starkly contrasted against the nearly black pavement, creating a dramatic play of light and shadow. Subtle highlights suggest the presence of moisture on the ground, adding depth to the composition. The overall impression is one of fleeting beauty and the transient nature of the season.
