Overexposed

Picture Description¹⁾

A blurry photograph capturing the movement of lights and the vague outline of a building at daytime.

Analysis¹⁾

This captivating piece, titled 'Urban Flux,' is a study in motion and light. The artist employs a long exposure technique to capture the dynamic energy of a city at night. Streaks of white, blue, and red paint the canvas, representing the fleeting passage of vehicles and the vibrant pulse of urban life. A blurred architectural form anchors the right side of the composition, providing a sense of place amidst the abstraction. The overall effect is dreamlike and immersive, inviting the viewer to contemplate the ephemeral nature of time and the relentless flow of modern existence.
