Red Bue Green

Picture Description¹⁾

A triptych of tire tracks diagonally across a red, blue, and green background.

Analysis¹⁾

This striking triptych presents a textured, diagonal line across three vibrant color fields of red, cyan, and green. The dark line appears almost organic, like a trail of spores or dust, creating a compelling contrast against the flat, saturated backgrounds. The repetition and color variation evoke a sense of rhythm and visual exploration, prompting contemplation on form and hue.
