Summer had Ended

Picture Description¹⁾

A dark road with white lines leads towards a building at the end, surrounded by trees and scattered with leaves.

Analysis¹⁾

This haunting photograph captures a lonely road stretching into the darkness, flanked by towering trees that seem to swallow the light. The stark white lines painted on the asphalt guide the eye towards a distant building, its red facade a beacon in the gloom. Scattered leaves add a touch of melancholic beauty to the scene, hinting at the passage of time and the transience of life.
