Grey Corn I

Picture Description¹⁾

A monochrome close-up shows a field of mature wheat stalks bowed under the weight of their grain.

Analysis¹⁾

This black and white photograph presents a dense field of mature wheat stalks. The heavy heads of grain bow gracefully under their weight, creating a rhythmic pattern of curves and lines. The monochromatic palette emphasizes the textures and forms of the wheat, highlighting the intricate details of each individual grain head and the interplay of light and shadow across the field. The photograph evokes a sense of abundance and the bounty of nature, while also suggesting the cyclical nature of growth and harvest.
