Swiss Mirror I

Picture Description¹⁾

A black and white photograph of a round traffic mirror reflecting a street and buildings under a cloudy sky.

Analysis¹⁾

This photograph captures a street scene through the distorted lens of a circular traffic mirror. The photograph is rendered in stark black and white, emphasizing contrasts and textures. The mirror, with its textured frame, reflects two white buildings with dark shutters under a sky filled with dynamic clouds. The buildings appear slightly warped due to the curvature of the mirror, lending a surreal and dreamlike quality to the scene. The composition is a study in layers and perspectives, inviting the viewer to contemplate reality versus reflection.
